

MUSIC PERFORMANCE (GRADUATE CERTIFICATE)

Overview

The Graduate Certificate in Music Performance is designed to provide an intensive year of post-baccalaureate study, with an intensive focus on music performance and repertoire development. It is designed for the student who is preparing for a professional appointment or in preparation for advanced degrees in music.

To qualify for this certificate program, students must have completed a bachelor's degree or equivalent in music, as well as a thorough interview and audition.

Program of Study

Code	Title	Credit Hours
	Applied music lessons at the 7000 level (any MUSA 7200-7900)	8
	Ensemble participation at the 7000 level (MUSP 7070, MUSP 7080, MUSP 7090)	2
	Chamber or large ensemble participation at the 6000 level (or higher) (any MUSP 6000-7999)	2
Total Credit Hours		12