

THEATRE (BA)

Program Overview

The Department of Theatre offers comprehensive undergraduate programs, which are accredited by the National Association of Schools of Theatre. The Bachelor of Arts (BA) provides students with a well-rounded education in all areas of theatre arts – production & performance (including acting, directing, and design/technical skills), literature, and history.

Career Opportunities

This degree enables and assists individuals seeking careers in theatre, careers related to theatre, or graduate studies.