EXERCISE SCIENCE (MS)

Program Learning Outcomes

• Demonstrate an advanced knowledge base in the discipline of Exercise Science
• Demonstrate advanced skills in the areas of assessment techniques used in exercise science-related professions
• Demonstrate advanced skills in exercise prescription and programming in a variety of populations
• Demonstrate ability to design, interpret, analyze, and apply research in the discipline of Exercise Science
• Demonstrate the ability to research, collect, and summarize data and information from a variety of sources and to present that information at a level consistent with the intended audience